

Terms and conditions

Registration

Before validating a registration, a pre-registration by e-mail is necessary. It allows us to verify that there is still room for training.

Pre-registrations are done when we receive the registration form. The registration is done in the order of reception of the requests.

We will answer you by specifying the deposit due (20% of the total sum). We ask you to pay the deposit within 10 days. This deposit validates your registration.

The payment of the deposit implies your agreement to the present general conditions as well as the internal rules of the Ermitaj.

The Ermitaj reserves the right to cancel the registration in case of non-payment of the deposit on time.

The remaining balance must be paid no later than 30 calendar days before the start of the training (1st August). Failure to pay the balance in time will be considered as a cancellation. If you register less than 30 days before the start of the training, all registration fees are to be paid directly.

Payment

The membership fee, the deposit and the balance are to be addressed to:

Cancellation

The participant may cancel without proof within 10 days of the application for registration. For any registration taking place 10 working days before the start of the training, cancellation is not possible.

Any cancellation of registration more than 10 days after the confirmation of registration and up to 1 calendar month before the start of the training accepts a non-refund of 50% of the deposit to cover administrative costs.

For any cancellation less than one month before the training, the entire deposit will be charged by the organizer.

No refund of the registration fees will be due if the participant decides to shorten their training.

In case of cancellation due to the organization, if the number of participants is not reached, you will be fully refunded, without additional compensation.

Meal

The price of the training includes meals from Sunday 2nd to Sunday 16th in the morning. The Saturday night 1st, each participant bring a bit of food on the idea of the potluck. As Sunday 9 is a day of rest, the participants will manage the meals themselves, although we will provide ingredients.

Water, tea and coffee are available during breaks.

Services

Active participation is requested from participants for certain tasks such as, for example, setting table, general cleaning and tidying or washing dishes. Protocols for the use of tools, including health and safety, cleaning and storage will be explained on site before usage. Thank you for your understanding.

Internal regulations

In order to ensure smooth running of the training, it is essential to respect the following rules. It is our primary aim to ensure the course is an enjoyable and safe experience for all and that your expectations are surpassed. Your co-operation is much appreciated.

Rhythm of days

The beginning of the day must be respected, we ask everyone to be ready to start the course right in time so as not to disrupt the smooth running of the training.

Respect for the place

To ensure the beauty and quietness of the place you must avoid any type of material pollution (waste, cigarette butts...) and sound pollution (shouting, excessive use of the phone, and no use of phones in class...).

Smoking is prohibited inside buildings or at entrances/exits and around flammable materials such as hay or straw.

Behavior

The organizers reserve the right to exclude a participant in case of serious problem hindering the smooth running of the training. The training costs will then be reimbursed in proportion to the days of training not carried out without additional compensation. Alcohol abuse or narcotics use is not tolerated.

Special conditions due to the off-grid situation of the Ermitaj

As Ermitaj is a place outside networks, we ask you:

- To leave at your home any energy-consuming electrical appliance (such as a hair dryer ...)

- Be careful not to waste electricity (turn off the lights, unplug chargers ...)
- To use the water sparingly (no waste, short showers ...)
- To use biodegradable cosmetics
- To use the Ermitaj wi-fi network with the utmost parsimony (limited satellite connection)

The organizer gives itself the right to restrict the use of water, internet or electricity at times.

NB: the Ermitaj has good reception for Telekom telephony network (ex-Cosmote), we receive in some places a weak signal from the operator "Orange".

Security

Each participant agrees to respect their safety and that of others and to apply the safety instructions.

The Ermitaj has materials, animals and professional equipment. Some areas are not secure. Consequently, these rules must be respected:

- Show good sense and kindness to animals. Close all gates and doors where necessary.
- Pay attention to water points.
- Do not make fire near buildings, hay, straw, wood ...
- When using tools necessary for the training, be very careful and respect the instructions given by the trainer or the organizers.
- Do not use tools without instructor or organizer permissions.

Pets

If a participant wishes to come with a pet, we kindly ask them to ask for permission in advance. Animal owner's will be held fully responsible in case of material or physical damage it could cause. If the pet seriously disrupts the training and no solution is found, the organizers reserve the right to exclude the participant. The training costs will then be reimbursed in proportion to the days of training not carried out without additional compensation.

Insurance and responsibility

Minors (aged <18 years) are under the sole responsibility of their legal guardian. The Ermitaj declines all responsibility for them.

Each participant is invited to take out liability insurance.

Ermitaj declares that it has taken out insurance to cover bodily, material and immaterial damage resulting from bodily injury caused to others.

Health

The training is suitable for any healthy person. Each participant must judge if they are fit to follow the training. Thank you for reporting allergies or other medical issues.

Right image

The organizers are likely to take photos or videos during the training for publications (annual report, newsletter...) If a participant does not wish to appear on a publication, please notify the organisers. This request will be made again at the start of the course so all participants are clear.

Contents

The announced training content is likely to be adapted according to the participants' expectations or the weather. They therefore constitute an indicative base. A digital handbook will be issued to all participants who have fully paid their fees before the course which gives supporting material and workspace. It is up to participants to print their own copy if they so desire.
